Perspectives from the global church to help us consider our local and global mission in a time of crisis.

The Anglican mission agency USPG has prepared this study course in six sessions in the light of the climate crisis and global pandemic. This will look at creation and the fallen character of our human nature, as well as the remedy in the biblical narrative of salvation and its challenge to us to play our part in the process of redemption and re-creation. This course looks at the implications for our daily lives both as individuals and as communities of faith and hope.

The course can be downloaded free at the following link: United Society Partners in the Gospel | Study Courses \(uspg.org.uk\)

All welcome

Each session will end with a simple service of Night Prayer
